

WORLD'S PER DAY.

May 7th, 1889.

AFTER a thorough examination of the Circulation Books, Press and Mail

Room Reports and Newsdealers' Accounts of the "NEW YORK WORLD," also the Receipted Bills from various Paper Companies, which supply the "NEW YORK WORLD," as well as the Indorsed Checks given in payment therefor, we are convinced, and certify, that there were Printed and Actually Circulated during the Month of March,

1889, a total of Ten Million Seven Hundred and Nine Thousand Five Hundred and Twenty (10,709,520)

Complete Copies of "THE WORLD."

Malama

Manager of the New York Clearing-House.

President of the American Loan and Trust Company.

March, 1889, - 10,709,520

Average Number of WORLDS Printed Daily

during the Month of March last:

345,468.

Average Number of WORLDS Printed Daily

during the last Six Months:

342,206.

COMP. ON:

THE WORLD has now seventy thousand dollars, collected by its individual efforts, for the Guarantee Fund of the World's Fair. It has done this by a vigorous personal canvassing.

In a word, though the numerous friends of the paper have naturally helped to make its list larger than that of any other newspaper, there was not much more spontaneous alacrity in the contributions here than has been displayed elsewhere. But the course of approaching the citizens and soliciting contributions was adopted, with what success the subscription list attests.

There must be no flagging. This part of the great task may be irksome, but it is absolutely necessary, and the sooner it is through with and force can be applied to the other preparations for the great event, the better.

Until the $5,000,000 is in hand there is nothing else to be said except to hasten with it. It must be had. Why not quickly?

VIRGINIA AND MAHONE.

To-morrow night it will be clear whether

Virginia belongs to MAHON or MAHON or merely belongs to Virginia. The reason the election there is watched with such interest is because of the peril involved in it to the integrity of the corner-stone of American government, the purity of the ballot-box.

What Gen. Mahone wants is votes for himself. Who casts them or how is a minor consideration. He is more eager to be

Governor of Virginia than to be the choice of Virginians for Governor. These are wide distinctions and they mean a great deal.

The reports from the "Old Dominion" are not gladsome now. Will they be less so tomorrow night?

If they tell of the election of MAHON they undoubtedly will. Still more, if they tell of illegal votes, monkeying with the returns or "bulldozing" at the polls.

JAY GOULD AS A SITTER.

JAY GOULD's portrait has been done a thousand times by the press, but he has never in to discouragement after the failure of their sixth attempt.

One of our ministers said yesterday that there are no infants in the place of future punishment. Cheering news for those wicked old bachelors who are always complaining about the dear little cherubs' squalling.

Mr. P. T. BARNUM is a humorist as well as an advertiser. He has all the seats for his opening night in London are sold to "the nobility, aristocracy, gentry, art, science and the professions."

A random steer in Kansas City charged madly into a trap, and he was rendered in-conscious, but was uninjured. Certainly he was not injured. Unconsciousness improves a tramp.

Vote against a Senate or Assembly candidate who has not pledged himself against the use of Central Park for the World's Fair.

Vote early but not often to-morrow.

SPOT LETS.

Are Mr. Powell's wife, out in Illinois is dearly dear to him. He not only left her with her, but paid her $100,000 to marry him.

Clothing Salesman—Well, how do you like this patent?

Customer—Can't you give me something a little quicker? You see, I've come home after midnight, and it is a matter of some importance to me not to wake up my wife.—Burlington Free Press.

Kansas City's bowling teams differ from its real estate boom in that they fall off in value away from home. One of them, brought into Jefferson Market Court yesterday, was appraised at only $10 by the Justice.

The real Coroner's Jury is often a body fearfully and wonderfully made up. Vide the verdict in Greenwich that Mrs. Macle's husband "came to his death from the effects of a blow upon the head received before death."

Gone is the blazer's beautiful stripe from morning and from night

The chap who does his dapper clothes is not so dapper as he used to be

And one who was a bathing suit is not so much of a bathing suit as he used to be Another fond tradition of the Republic is gone.

Recent researches show that Abraham Lincoln had anorexia which was not only rich but office-bolster.

Two little boys recently got hold of an engine and started it. Strange to say, it was the engine which was broken up. Engineers cannot be too careful in the way in which they leave their engines about.

A Chester (Pa.) husband will stay in nights for some time to come. His wife gave him the hint which led to his arrest for burglary.

The truly good do not always wait long for their reward. A Kansas City reporter has fallen for $500,000.

London's Lord Mayor, Whitehead is also a level head. He would not banquet the Shah until he was promoted a baronetcy.

With two wives living within forty miles of each other, and with indictments for tawdry standing against him in Ulster and Columbia counties, a ray of Valentin goes free for want of jurisdiction in the courts. It used to be that lack of evidence was the only serious block in such a case.

POLITICAL ECHOES.

"Handsome Billy" Echean, of Buffalo, the Democratic leader in the Assembly, gains a bride, but is liable to lose his seat in the Legislature. Billy is going to move out of the poor district he has resented for the twenty-first district, which has reputedly the fiercest fight.

Tammany Hall may think Coroner Messinger for many a year this election. He has been working like a beaver for the ticket night and day.

The Central Labor Federation, the Socialist executive body, has declared against Benjamin Van Leuven, the Tammany candidate for Assembly in the Twelfth District.

Gen. John N. Knapp, the Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, has secured a "pair" at his home in Auburn and will watch tomorrow's battle in this city with a great deal of interest.

Mr. William Edwards, of the Hoffman House, is awfully anxious to invest a number of thousands of dollars which he has been commissioned to let on the success of the Tammany ticket. He is meeting with bankers, although he is ready to bet on the ma-

WINNERS OF MEN.

Wives Who Enjoy Their Husbands'

Society of Evenings.

Beguilements by Which the Lords of Creation Are Kept at Home.

Eager Competition for "The Evening World" Golden Prize.

Thousands of Ladies, Each of Whom

Thinks Her Plan Best.

Conditions of the Contest.

A Gold Watch and "Evening World" prize for the best recipe for keeping a husband at home evenings.

Competitors must address their replies to "The Editor," giving their name and address, and responding to the editor's address, and responding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-

sponding to the editor's address, and re-able to go out, until you have put the children to bed, and might forget to come back until you also have retired. I attended the children cheerfully, thinking of for them.

As particular about your personal appearance, you were kinder your engagement.

As particular about your personal appearance, you were kinder your engagement.

As particular about your personal appearance, you were kinder your engagement.

As particular about your personal appearance, you were kinder your engagement.

As particular about your personal appearance, you were kinder your engagement.

As particular about your personal appearance, you were kinder your engagement.

As particular about your personal appearance, you were kinder your engagement.

As particular about your personal appear-